

Mathematics Self-directed Reading Series

Language across the Curriculum

The 'Mathematics Self-directed Reading Series' provides 'reading for learning' materials related to mathematics. With its diversified contents, this series allows children to acquire mathematical knowledge through reading interesting passages, cultivate independent learning, and widen their scopes of knowledge and horizons.

Each booklet is in a bilingual format with both Chinese and English versions of each passage being supplied, so as to provide children with cross-language learning materials.

The whole series is divided into three levels:

Level 1 for P.1 and P.2

Level 2 for P.3 and P.4

Level 3 for P.5 and P.6

and four categories for each level:

Stories

Math Micropedia
